HARRY POTTER AND THE DEATHLY HALLOWS PART 1 REVIEW

By Sarah Taylor

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows has hit the roof as millions of people have seen the next part of Harry Potter! I think it is a phenomenon series and the next movie was just as amazing! I asked Lauren Woosey about what she thought.....

Q1: Do you think that it has got better throughout the series?

A: My favourite is the 3rd film the Prison of Azkaban because I like the griffin called Buckbeak but I think they have got better and it has got darker.

Q2: Do you think that the Deathly Hallows Part 1 is a great interpretation of J.K Rowlings book?

A: Yes because they included lots of details that was in the book.

I also asked some other people what they thought here were the comments:

“ I really like it as they show the struggles the characters go through really well and it makes you notice whether the friendship will last between the three friends!” Tilly Reijs, age 10.

“I think that the Deathly Hallows Part 1 was an exciting and very thrilling movie. I love how it draws you in and makes you think about what is going to be next.” Iona Skelton, age 11.

Overall, I think that lots of people enjoyed this new exciting movie I wonder what is going to happen next!

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 1 poster! Now Deathly Hallows Part 2 is out I hope you all get to see it!

THE STORM TO COME LUCY HARRIS

The book “The Storm To Come “by Yankev Glatshetyn is a very good book and you should read it .Emil and Karl are best friends .Emil is a Jew ;Karl isn't .When three men take Karl's mother away, who knows where, and the Nazis murder Emil's father ,the two boys find themselves alone and scared , wandering in an increasing hostile city. Who can they trust and where can they go...?I enjoyed the book and I recommend the book to the ages 8-12.
